

The United Way
Community Fulfillment Center connects those in need with basic
everyday essentials,
including clothing,
food, electronics
and more.

Through in-kind donations from United Way's corporate and community partners, this program distributes resources to nonprofit organizations, faith-based institutions, schools and grassroots community organizations across Southeastern Michigan to support low-income families. To date, items distributed through his program have a combined value of more than $11 million.

Submit your organization's request to receive donated items at UnitedWaySEM.org/DonationRequests.
